

If you are up to 25 years old, in the final year of graduate studies or a postgraduate, a team player, an `out of the box` thinker, a go-getter, willing to expand your knowledge and ready to experience a unique annual educational journey through an exceptional leadership program

the American Chamber of Commerce in Serbia encourages you to apply for

Young Leaders in Change

WHAT

LEARNING CURVE

Lectures:

Business Ethics
Leadership
Entrepreneurship & Business Development
Innovation & Creativity
People Management
Business Strategy

Workshops:

Find Your Pair (Mentoring)
Communication
Stress Management
Time Management: Planning & Organizing
Constructive Problem Solving

Social & Networking Activities:

Meet the Media
An Evening with a Motivational Speaker
AmCham Cocktails
Meet the Leader
Team Building
An afternoon with the U.S. Ambassador (TBC)

SEMIFINALS:

Project: Develop one of AmCham's existing or potential activities

FINALS:

Internship for 3 top students with the aim of choosing the best one based on performance

WHO

20 ambitious students and postgraduates from the University of Belgrade & 20 young prosperous managers from AmCham member companies

HOW

Matched in 20 pairs -

one young manager (mentor) & one student (mentee) - participants will be evaluated throughout the program based on:

- Attendance (at least 70%)
- Joint and individual assignments
- Additional voluntary tasks
- Proactive approach toward tasks & general impressions with the aim of accumulating points for placing the top 6 pairs in the semi - finals.

The Finals will be reserved for the 3 pairs that prepared the best project proposals in the semi-finals.

AWARDS

Internships @ AmCham member companies for 3 top students

Module @ Cotrugli Business School
for the best student

APPLICATION PROCESS

Please visit www.razvojkarijere.bg.ac.rs for more information and to download the application form.

Applications should be sent via e-mail to:
saradnja@razvojkarijere.bg.ac.rs by January 22, 2014